

Identifying a Good Potential Advisor

So, you've met with a faculty member or administrator and are trying to discern if they're a good fit as a chapter advisor. Use this decision tree to help you. Keep in mind that there are many, many reasons why a faculty member may not be interested in serving in this role. It's nothing personal! They may still be incredible prayer partners and advocates!

Do they show love for God & others, love for campus, love for their academic discipline, and love for our world ?

Yes.

No.

Do they want to spend time with the chapter & IV students?

No.

Yes.

Are they comfortable being associated with a campus ministry?

No.

If you answered yes to all of these, they sound like a potentially great advisor! Take time to pray over the decision before inviting them to advise!
